Tour Calendar Individual Travellers

We no longer operate a tour calendar as we rely entirely on our customers to specify when and where we take them. We do however continue to take enquiries from customers who are not part of a group but still wish to visit the battlefields with a small group. Under these circumstances we can accommodate you with other like minded customers and construct a battlefield tour which meets your requirements. Please use the enquiry form to request further information on your proposed battlefield tour. The Cost The cost will depend on the group size and the length of tour you choose. As a guide, six clients travelling together on a 3 day, 2 night tour would cost in the region of £445 per person. On a similar basis, the same group choosing to extend the tour by an additional nights accommodation would pay about £585 per person. What is included? Our battlefield tours are now all inclusive
